

Directions from Lucerne main station to the Glacier Garden

In Lucerne main station, on platforms 2 to 15, follow the safety line in the direction of the incoming trains. At the end of the platform, there is tactile paving spanning the entire width of the platform. A guidance path starts in the middle of this tactile paving. Follow the guidance path a few metres until you encounter a crossing guidance path, which connects all guidance paths in the station hall like an aorta. Turn left and follow the aorta straight on until it makes a turn shortly before the side exit. Turn around and go back along the aorta. At the third branch to the left, turn left. After a few steps, there is another branch to the left, which leads you to the stairs of the pedestrian underpass.

At the bottom right of the stairs, follow the guidance path straight on. At the first branching to the left and right, turn right. At the next crossing, turn left. At the first branching to the right, turn right to reach the stairs leading up to the station square, or “Bahnhofplatz” in German. The handrail has braille and tactile letters saying “Bus” and “B bis D”, meaning "B to D".

At the top of the stairs, there is tactile paving spanning the entire width of the bus platform. Follow the tactile paving to the left until you reach the platform edge, “Kante B”. Mind the incoming and outgoing buses. Follow the kerb to the right until the boarding marker. Take bus no. 1 bound for Ebikon, Fildern.

Get off the bus at the fourth stop, called Wesemlinrain. Continue walking in the same direction into “Wesemlinrain” street, which is slightly uphill and has hardly any traffic. At the end of the short Wesemlinrain, carry on straight across Denkmalstrasse. On the other side, there is a wide, wrought-iron gate. Turn right and go slightly downhill, following a high natural stone wall on the left-hand side of Denkmalstrasse. Mind the large plant troughs on the street. At the end of the wall, turn left to reach a small forecourt in front of the entrance to the Glacier Garden. On your left, four wide steps lead up to a small chalet, which is the Ticket House. Enter the Glacier Garden through the Ticket House.
